How to play this round

One round, twelve questions. Every question is tagged with a tier, so a five-year-old and a grandparent can share a team and both matter.

Snowflake - 1 point
Easy and kid-friendly

Holly - 2 points
Medium: most adults know it

Star - 3 points
Hard: for the trivia buff

RUNNING THE ROUND

1. Split into teams and give each team a team answer sheet (page 5) and a pencil.
2. Read the one-line intro at the top of page 3, then read each question twice. The tier is printed beside every question, so teams know what it is worth.
3. Collect the sheets, read the answers from the answer key (page 4) and tick each right answer.
4. Count each team's right answers by tier and write them on the scorecard (page 7). Points = Snowflakes x 1 + Holly x 2 + Stars x 3. Page 6 shows a whole round filled in.

IF TWO TEAMS TIE

Read the tie-breaker card (page 7): each team writes one number, and the closest guess wins. Still level, the team with more Star answers wins. Still level, share the win.

PRINTING TIPS

- Print at 100% (Actual size) on Letter or A4 paper.
- Print the answer key (page 4) on its own sheet and keep it face down, or read it from the screen.
- Print page 5 once for each team. Page 7 is yours to print again for every game night.

The Ashgroves' carol round

Three teams played the Carols & Hymns round. Each team's right answers are counted by tier, multiplied by the tier's points, and added up.

Team	Snowflakes right x 1	Holly right x 2	Stars right x 3	Points	Tie-break guess	Off by	Place
Team Tinsel	3	2	2	13	1950	16	2nd
The Jingle Belles	4	3	1	13	1972	6	1st
Holly Jolly Crew	4	2	1	11	1985	19	3rd

THE TIE-BREAKER CARD THEY READ

In what year was Kwanzaa first celebrated?

Answer: 1966. Maulana Karenga created Kwanzaa, which runs December 26 to January 1.

Source: Encyclopaedia Britannica — Kwanzaa

The Jingle Belles and Team Tinsel tied on 13 points. The Jingle Belles guessed 1972, 6 years off; Team Tinsel guessed 1950, 16 off. The Jingle Belles win.

Team Tinsel had more Star answers (2 to 1), but the closest guess is applied first; Stars only decide it when the guesses are level.

Every name and score here is invented: the Ashgrove family is fictional.
